Access Technology for Special Needs

Cambridge ESOL now allows candidates with special needs to use a range of Access Technology. Access Technology describes the specialist equipment which gives people with special needs access to standard technology (such as computers) or enables them to read, write, speak or listen. Centres will not be expected to provide the equipment as candidates will normally use their own. As with all other Special Arrangements, contact your centre if you need to request the use of Access Technology for one of your students as early as possible.

YLE - Young Learners
English Tests

English for Young Learners

In today's world, learning English is a vital skill that will help your young students achieve their full potential in later life. The sooner they start learning, the better — with the right methods, children can learn English quickly, effectively and enjoyably. Children who learn English when they are young will have an advantage that will stay with them all their life. Cambridge ESOL recognises this and has developed a special system of tests designed to get children of primary school age and upwards on the path to learning English. Our Young Learners English (YLE) tests (Starters, Movers and Flyers) are designed to make learning fun.

How to do well in the Cambridge Young Learners English tests is an electronic leaflet that describes some of the common mistakes which candidates make in the Cambridge YLE Tests. It also gives advice to teachers preparing children for the tests to help them to do their best. Would you like us to email you a copy?

¡Feliz Día del Niño a todos
nuestros candidatos más jóvenes!

Did you know...

that more than 1,500,000 children in China have taken our Young Learners English (YLE) tests in the last 10 years?
