ALTE International Conference 2008

ALTE - the Association of Language Testers in Europe was initially formed by the Universities of Cambridge and Salamanca in 1989. One of the main objectives of ALTE is to establish common standards for all stages of the language-testing process.

Cambridge ESOL remains an enthusiastic and active member of ALTE and will host the third ALTE International Conference (April 2008) at the University of Cambridge. The conference theme is The Social and Educational Impact of Language Assessment.

This important event will be of interest to anyone working in language testing, applied linguistics, ministries of education, educational policy and language teaching.

Visit the ALTE website for the latest information about plenary speakers, how to register and other details: www.alte.org/2008/membership

The Cambridge ESOL Team wishes you a Happy Christmas and all the best for the coming year!

¡El equipo de Cambridge ESOL les desea una muy Feliz Navidad y todo lo mejor para el próximo año!
